

FRICITION SURFACE COATING FOR COMMERCIAL VEHICLE DISC BRAKE PADS

Textar friction surface coating has numerous purposes and effects:

- Increased initial friction coefficient until operational value is reached
 - Reduces the usual time required for the new pad to “bed-in”
 - Improves initial braking performance
- Optimised bedding-in properties on brake discs that have not been cleaned or skimmed properly
 - Reduces any surface debris and contamination that remain on the disc

Further Information under www.brakebook.com

www.textar.brakebook.com

www.textar.com

